-Self Reflection-

My "pet peeves" or things that I can easily get frustrated with that a roommate should know about are: _____

If a conflict arises we should handle the situation the following way:

- Ask me what is wrong
- Leave me alone
- Let me be and I will talk with you about the situation when I am ready
- Talk to the RA
- Other _____

-Quiet Hours- Quiet hours are from 10:00pm to 10:00am on weekdays and 12:00am-10:00am on the weekends. This building has 24 'courtesy' hours which means we are respectful of other rooms/suites at all hours and if asked to turn down music or cease noise will comply immediately. This may be different if you live on a quiet floor.

Will there be any additional quiet hours in your room? (e.g. daytime napping, study times) yes no

If yes please list the addition quiet hour times _____

Is it OK to have music playing or the TV on while you are studying? (Check Box) yes no

I prefer to study during: (Circle One) Morning mid-day afternoon evening late at night

-Music-

Do you have music preferences, with which you would like certain music (based on content, volume, and/or genre) to not be played in your room/you would prefer your roommate wear headphones to listen to?

-Guests- "Overnight guests may not stay more than three nights consecutively and seven nights per year...Roommates are strongly encouraged to take some time to talk about arrangements for guests and about how all parties feel about the potential disruption guests can cause before the guests are invited to stay" (UHDS Policy Guide found at http://oregonstate.edu/uhs/current_students/.)

Will it make you uncomfortable if another person stays overnight? yes no

Will it make you uncomfortable if your roommate's significant other spends the night? yes no

What will you do if someone becomes uncomfortable with a visitor? How do you each want to be communicated with in the event that someone becomes uncomfortable with your guest?

- I will confront you if I am uncomfortable
- Other: _____
- Talk with the RA

Should you have to notify your roommate(s) if you are expecting guest? If so, how? And how far in advanced? (e.g. writing on the white board, slip a note under the door, verbally) yes no

If yes: _____

In the circumstance that something is broken or damaged how will this be handled financially? _____

-Food-

Will food be shared with roommate(s)? Yes No

If yes how will they know what food is shared and what food is not shared?

- Food will be labeled
- shared food will be in a "shared food area"
- I will keep personal food in a separate area

-Hygiene-

What will be the resolution if one of the roommate's/suitemates' hygiene becomes a concern? (This is a difficult thing to talk about, but it is often an issue and is best to discuss before it becomes a problem) How would you feel safest hearing this kind of news from your roommates/suitemates? _____

-Safety-

Does the door need to be locked every time the room is going to be empty? Even for a quick trip to the bathroom or the dining hall? UHDS strongly recommends locking your doors whenever you leave your room/suite. Yes No

If yes _____
